Your AML challenges solved, with Graham MacKenzie Monday 23rd March 2026 | 6.30pm | Blackfriars Restaurant

The Newcastle and North of England Law Society, in partnership with Amiquis, invites MLROs and COLPs to an exclusive evening of fine dining and peer-to-peer discussion.

This dinner offers a unique opportunity to sit down with one of the UK's leading authorities on legal sector AML.

Why attend?

The evening is hosted under Chatham House Rules, providing a private, relaxed environment to share experiences and debate the real-world challenges facing the legal sector's compliance community.

We are delighted to be joined by Graham MacKenzie, Director of AML & Economic Crime Risk at Amiquis. Graham joined Amiquis from the Law Society of Scotland, where he served as Head of AML. His expertise is unparalleled:

- LSAG Architect: Graham chaired the group responsible for the 2020 rewrite of the Treasury-approved LSAG Guidance.
- Cross-Regulator Expert: He co-authored guidance alongside the SRA and the Law Society of England & Wales.
- Policy Leader: As former chair of the UK AML Supervisor's forum, he has worked extensively with the Government and law enforcement on UK-wide legal risks.

Secure your place

This invitation is open to MLROs and COLPs from firms of all sizes. To maintain an intimate and high-value discussion, attendance is strictly limited to 16 guests.

RSVP: Please email mail@newcastlelawsociety.co.uk to reserve your seat.
