

With The Law on Our Side

Thursday 24th September 2026

5pm-7pm

Join us for an evening of networking and panel discussion celebrating the many different paths to success within the legal profession. Featuring Baroness Hale of Richmond alongside Lesley Fairclough, President of The Newcastle and North of England Law Society, members of the judiciary, and lawyers from across the region. The event will explore career progression, overcoming barriers, resilience, and the importance of opportunity and support throughout a legal career.

The event will support Smart Works North East, a charity helping women into employment through coaching and professional clothing, with attendees encouraged to bring donations of work wear for Smart Works North East, and menswear donations for Suitability, a North East charity that supports unemployed men with interview attire and employability support.

Venue

Trinity Chambers, The Custom House,
Quayside, Newcastle Upon Tyne, NE1 3DE
