TEES VALLEY AREA VISIT & WELLBEING ROUND TABLE

THURSDAY 28TH MAY 2026

We are delighted on behalf of The Law Society to invite you to an upcoming panel discussion and roundtable in Middlesbrough, focused on mental health and wellbeing in the profession.

This free event will take place from 12:00 – 14:00, in-person, kindly hosted at Double Eleven (Boho X, Gosford Street, Middlesbrough TS2 1BB).

A light lunch and refreshments will be provided alongside ample time to network with your peers.

Speakers include:

- Mark Evans, President, the Law Society of England and Wales
- Lesley Fairclough, President of The Newcastle and North of England Law Society
- Trish McLellan, Director of Engagement, LawCare
- Christina Lambi, Wellbeing Manager, the Law Society of England and Wales

Discussions will focus on findings from LawCare's Life in the Law Report 2025 and workplace mental health and wellbeing, including challenges and the role of senior leadership; managing client demands and expectations; maintaining a healthy work-life balance and recognising burnout; and initiatives to improve workplace culture and support systems. Following the panel discussion, there will be ample time for attendees to share their own experiences and ask questions of our panel.

As this is an in-person event only, spaces are limited and you are encouraged to RSVP early to avoid disappointment. Please click the link here to sign up.
